Important Information

- You have purchased a non-refundable flight itinerary. Please contact your airline(s) directly for any questions or changes to your reservation. Your airline(s) may charge a fee for any changes or cancellations.
- Please confirm any optional extras, such as seat assignments, special meals, frequent flyer program awards and special assistance requests directly with your airline(s). Please note that some airlines may charge additional fees for any optional extras.
- We recommend all passengers to complete online check-in, if eligible, to avoid delays at the airport.
- We recommend all passengers to pre-purchase any paid amenities, such as additional baggage allowances, seat upgrades or any other amenities prior to travelling. Some airlines may charge higher fees for purchasing amenities at the airport. Please check any applicable fees for all amenities directly with your airline(s).
- For international travels: It is the responsibility of each passenger to obtain and carry a valid passport, visa(s), transit permits and any other travel documents required by applicable government regulations. Please check any applicable travel requirements directly with your airline(s). Without necessary documents, passengers may not be allowed to board their flight.
